The 39th Beijing Youth Science Creation Competition

INVITATION

To ITT MONTANI,

Beijing Youth Science Creation Competition (BYSCC) is an annual event held in Beijing which attracts students and teachers home and abroad to exchange innovative ideas about science and technology. The BYSCC is organized by Beijing Association for Science and Technology, Beijing Municipal Commission of Education, Beijing Municipal Science and Technology Commission, Beijing Municipal Intellectual Property Bureau and the People's Government of the District where it's held. Since its launch in 1979, the BYSCC has been gaining popularity among teenagers with increasing number of participants. The 39th Beijing Youth Science Creation Competition (BYSCC) will be held in Huairou District, Beijing from March 23 to 26, 2019.

Herein, on behalf of the Organizing Committee, we are honored to invite a maximum five-member delegation (2 adults-in-charge in maximum) organized by your organization to attend the 39th BYSCC 2019. The participants must be high school students. There are three options of participation for invited teams: 1) to attend as observer, 2) to make a poster presentation but not compete, 3) to compete for prizes. Each delegation may bring two competing projects in maximum. The categories include: Computer Science, Mathematics, Zoology, Biomedical science, Biochemistry and Molecular Biology, Environmental Science and Engineering, Physics and Astronomy.

Your delegation is expected to arrive in Beijing on March 22 and depart on March 27. We will cover your expenses including meals, lodging and local transportation. Other expenses shall be borne by yourselves.

Contact person: Ms. SHI Qiao, Tel: 0086-10-84634991-811, Fax: 0086-10-84634991-812.

Ms. LI Jiayi, Tel: 0086-10-84640967, Fax: 0086-10-84634991-812.

Look forward to your participation!

Sincerely yours,

Beijing Association for Science and Technology
